

JOURNEY'S END

Written by Lisa Lease Vasey

V1

Every day you're further from my mind
I've finally found the peace I hoped I'd find
A simple act that was the key
To let it go so I could breath
Funny how words can set you free

CHORUS

I forgive you
For everything you did to me
And I accept
My responsibility
I forgive you, I forgive me too
And finally I am free of you

V2

I guess one day I'll think of you again
Good to know this journey's at an end
I have learned so many things
I'm grateful for the peace they bring
Funny how it's always the simple things
