

NEW LITTLE SECRET

Written by Lisa Lease Vasey

V1

Your new little secret is
Sneaking through the night to your back door
You think she wears the cloak of invisibility
That she stole from my draw
But I can see her
I can see her
Cause I used to be her
I used to be her

V2

And you close the curtains
So I won't glimpse the thief in the night
And you think her footsteps are falling silently
Like the tears that I'm cryin
But I can hear her
I can hear her
Cause I used to be her
I used to be her

CHORUS

Your new little secret
And in time she'll know
To expect the unexpected
To be cast out unselected
Your new little secret

And history will repeat
Cause a cheater will always cheat
A cheater will always cheat
Is this my reckoning
Is this my reckoning
This is my reckoning

V3

You wear your mask
So she won't see that you have two faces
And when your wandering eyes have packed up & left me
They'll be wearing dark glasses
So she won't see
So she won't see
Soon she will be me
Soon she will be me

Your new little secret
And in time she'll know
To expect the unexpected
To be cast out unselected
Your new little secret
And history will repeat
Cause a cheater always cheats
Is this my retribution

This is my retribution

Your new little secret

And in time she'll know

To expect the unexpected

To be cast out unselected

Your new little secret

History will repeat

Cause a cheater will always cheat
